Programme – 2020-21

A session on “Peer Pressure” by Sri. M. Rajeswara Rao, Lecturer in Physics & IQAC Co-ordinator

A workshop for the first year students organized by the Principal on “4 tips to improve non verbal Communication”

To teach Communication skills to the newly admitted students is an essential activity during the Student Induction Programme (SIP) Deeksharambh, a session was organized where students are shown a video on how to improve their non verbal communication. The workshop was organized by the Principal of the college. A video was played from Learn English Lab. The title of the video was 4 body language tricks to impress anyone. The 4 tricks or tips are 1. Smile, 2. Eye contact 3. Use Good Posture 4. Control your hands/avoid fidgeting.

After watching the video students are given a task. A student volunteer is asked to come and stand facing the audience for a minute, and the remaining students are supposed to observe him/her and to make a note of points where the student needs improvement. About eight students both boys and girls volunteered to be examined for their non verbal communication. Most of the students felt that that session helped them learn a lot in improving their personality.
